GRIZZLY FOOTBALL AWARDS FOR
1979 SEASON ARE ANNOUNCED

MISSOULA--

Kodak All-American receiver Jim Hard leads the list of football players honored by the University of Montana in its recent honors balloting for the 1979 season.

Hard, a senior from Napa, Calif. will receive the Steve Carlson Trophy, awarded to the Most Valuable Player. He set several Grizzly single season records this year including: most receptions (47), most yards (722) and most TD receptions (7). He was recently named to the first team by the Big Sky Conference coaches.

There were three captains chosen by the Grizzly players. Free safety Greg Dunn, linebacker Kent Clausen and tight end Allen Green were named as 1979 team captains.

Dunn, who set single season marks in kickoff returns in yardage (660) and number of returns (28), also received The Golden Helmet Award -- given annually to the hardest hitter on the team. He is a senior from Medical Lake, Wash. He led the secondary in tackles with 99, including 42 unassisted stops.

Clausen, who missed the final three games of the season with an injury, had 110 tackles in 7 games before being sidelined. He has another season of eligibility, and has indicated he will return for the 1980 season.

Green is a 6-3, 225-pounder from Anaconda, MT who caught 24 passes for 311 yards and two TDs this past season. He was recently named to the Pepsi-Mislou Network All-American team.

FOOTBALL AWARDS add 1-1-1

Dunn, Clausen and Green were all named to the All-Big Sky Conference team recently. All three were also selected for the team last season.

Other awards given included: Sam Martin, the Larry Miller Trophy (Outstanding Defensive lineman); Guy Bingham, Paul Weskamp Trophy (Outstanding Offensive Lineman); and Rocky Klever, the Terry Dillon Trophy (Outstanding Offensive Back).

Martin, 6-4, 225-pound senior from Seattle, Wash., has been a first team all-conference pick the last two straight seasons. He led the Grizzly defensive line with 106 tackles, and had 7 sacks.

Bingham was an all-conference pick at offensive tackle last season, and was named to the team this season as a center. He is a 6-3, 240-pound senior from Aberdeen, Wash.

Klever, a junior from Anchorage, Alaska, was Montana's leading rusher, gaining 679 yards on 156 carries for a 4.4-yard average. He scored 9 TDs this year, 8 via the rushing game. He also threw one TD pass.

Bingham and Klever are both repeat winners for this season's awards.

The Steve Carlson award is given in memory of a Grizzly football player who played in 1972-74, and died in 1976. The Larry Miller Trophy, was named after a standout football player and wrestler at UM from 1969-70, who died in an automobile accident in 1974. The Paul Weskamp award was named in memory of a former tackle on the 1954 Grizzly team. It was established by the citizens of Ronan, Mont. Terry Dillon was an outstanding offensive and defensive back for the Grizzlies (1960-62), who was establishing a professional football career. Dillon's number -- 22 has been retired.
